

Instructor: Dr. Jason Sandhar
jsunder@uwo.ca

English 2265F: Introduction to Theory

Course Description

This survey of literary theory and criticism introduces students to some of the most important figures in cultural, aesthetic, and political thought since Plato. We will explore the way that theoretical movements such as psychoanalysis, structuralism, postcolonial studies, and feminism have transformed how we interpret the world.