Course Description:

This course is an introduction to moral and political philosophy through competing conceptions of justice. In addition to introducing students to classical and contemporary theories of morality and justice, this course takes up legal and political issues that raise philosophical questions.

Learning Outcomes: one outcome per entry

1. Describe the major theories of morality and justice.
2. Apply these theories to concrete situations.
3. Discuss competing points of view on issues of morality and justice.
4. Evaluate conflicting philosophical arguments related to these issues.
5. Formulate well-reasoned solutions to practical dilemmas.
6. Persuade others of a well-reasoned stance or action.
7. Demonstrate skillful critical and reflective thinking.

Textbooks and Course Materials:

Justice: A Reader, edited by Michael J. Sandel, Oxford University Press (2007). This first edition textbook is only available in print, and is available at Western's bookstore for a cost of $63.30.
