ASIAN STUDIES PROGRAM

Kansai Gaidai University

Established in 1972, the Asian Studies Program today annually welcomes about 1,000 competitively selected students who represent about 35 countries and regions.

SPECIAL FEATURES

01 Superb Location

Kansai Gaidai is located in the city of Hirakata in Osaka prefecture. Located midway between Osaka, Japan's second largest metropolis, and Kyoto, the ancient capital of Japan (both cities accessible by train within 30 minutes), Kansai Gaidai's campus is in the commercial and cultural heart of Japan. It is an excellent starting point to explore Japan.

02 Academic Calendar

The Asian Studies Program follows a typical academic calendar of overseas institutions in the northern hemisphere:

■ Fall Semester ■ Spring Semester

03 60+ Courses Offered in English

In addition to Japanese language courses, a wide variety of content-based courses from social sciences to business is available in English providing the deeper understanding of Japan and Asia from many different perspectives.

NEW DEVELOPMENTS AND OPPORTUNITIES

HOME VISIT PROGRAM

International students are invited to visit homes of Kansai Gaidai local students or neighborhood on weekends and/or holidays to experience family life in Japan first-hand. The objectives of this program is to provide students with an opportunity to meet with local families to facilitate their immersion in Japan. Activities may include but are not limited to cooking Japanese cuisines, attending local festivals, and engaging in everyday family routines. Both students and families can enrich their lives through cross-cultural interactions.

FACULTY-LED PROGRAM

The Asian Studies Program welcomes Faculty-Led Program from our partner institutions. Kansai Gaidai expands study opportunities for overseas students by hosting faculty-led programs. Campus tour, class observations, interactions with local students, and other activities give a sneak peek of Japanese university and its student's daily life, although program content and duration of the program vary at each university. This program offers an excellent starting point for exploration of Japan.
