Course Description:

This introductory survey course assumes no prior knowledge of business. Business 1220E requires no prerequisites. Although not a requirement for Ivey's HBA Business Program, Business 1220E offers an excellent overview of the Ivey case teaching method. This course is also serves as an introduction to the primary functional areas of study within the broader study of management and organizational studies.

Learning Outcomes:

1. Identify business administration fundamentals: Finance, Marketing, Operations, Organizational Behaviour, and General Management.
2. Demonstrate skills for effective problem-solving. To do this, students will learn basic analytical tools (e.g., projections, break-evens, cost/benefit analysis, etc.) and then be required to apply these tools to problems, using case methodology.
3. Apply decision-making with imperfect information under time constraints.
4. Utilize effective communication skills, both oral and written.
5. Project financial statements.
6. Assess the risk of a business venture.
7. Recommend a marketing, operations, and organizational behaviour strategy
8. Collaborate effectively in a team environment
