

Brief Course Outline

Course Title: Introduction to Globalization

Course Number and Section:

CGS

1022F 550

Instructor Name(s): Dr. Matthew McBurney

Instructor Email(s): mmcburn2@uwo.ca

Disclaimer: Information in the brief course outline is subject to change. The syllabus posted on OWL is the official and authoritative source of information for the course.

Course Description:

This course introduces and critically examines dominant approaches to understanding human interconnection at a global scale and provides an interdisciplinary overview of various trends attributed to globalization

Learning Outcomes:

Reflect on individual positions, places and values within a globalized world.

Demonstrate a critical awareness of the historical changes within globalization

Recognize and critically assess diverse effects of globalization

Improve reading and understanding of highly theoretical material in the field of globalization.

Develop critical analysis and academic writing skills.

Textbooks and Course Materials:

A majority of the course readings can be found through the Huron Library. I reserve the right to add to or otherwise alter the reading list, given sufficient notice is provided. All required readings must be read.

Methods Of Evaluation:

Assignment	Due Date mm/dd/yy	Weight - %
Forum Posts	Ongoing	30
Critical Reading Reflections	Ongoing	30
Final Critical Response Paper	TBD	40

In solidarity with the Anishinaabe, Haudenosaunee, Lūnaapéewak, and Chonnonton peoples on whose traditional treaty and unceded territories this course is shared.

Saturday, March 30, 2024