

Brief Course Outline

Course Title: Capital Markets

Course Number and Section:

MOS

4317B 550

Instructor Name(s): Jason Melbourne, Srikanth Ramani

Instructor Email(s): sramani3@uwo.ca

Disclaimer: Information in the brief course outline is subject to change. The syllabus posted on OWL is the official and authoritative source of information for the course.

Course Description:

This course examines the form and function of various financial markets and the manner in which financial managers use these markets to accomplish strategic corporate objectives. The objective of this course is to prepare students for successful interaction with both the capital markets and its participating institutions. A significant focus will be placed on the behavior of major financial institutions and their role in the intermediation process as suppliers of funds as well as the form and function of specific capital markets.

Learning Outcomes:

1. Offer a real-world demonstrable examination into the functions performed within an investment bank
2. Understand the role, responsibility, and objective of all participants in the capital markets
3. Examining the critical role of banks and non-bank financial intermediaries in the process of economic development and growth

Textbooks and Course Materials:

None

Methods Of Evaluation:

Assignment	Due Date mm/dd/yy	Weight - %
Participation		20%
Reflection Video		10%
Assignments		70%

In solidarity with the Anishinaabe, Haudenosaunee, Lūnaapéewak, and Chonnonton peoples on whose traditional treaty and unceded territories this course is shared.

Friday, December 27, 2024