

CONSENT 101 TRAINING GUIDE

INFORMATION ABOUT THE TRAINING

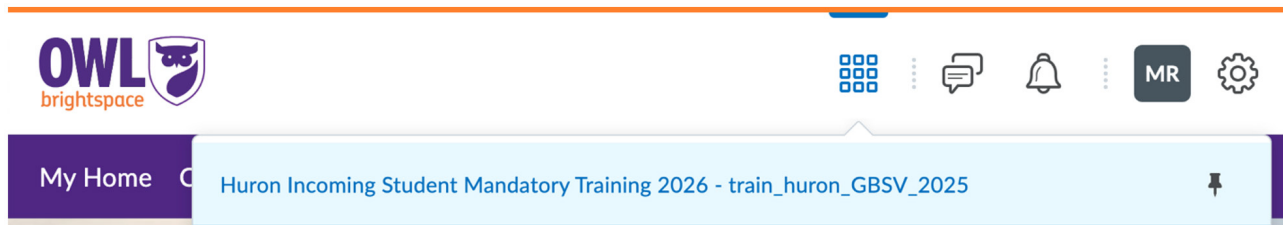

In this self-directed course you will form a greater understanding of gender-based and sexual violence, consent, Western's policies, and how we can create a culture that encourages proactive support for those in need.

As you prepare to join our community this September, you will play a part in fostering a supportive and safe environment for all. Completing this training is part of your commitment to a safe and respectful community at Western.

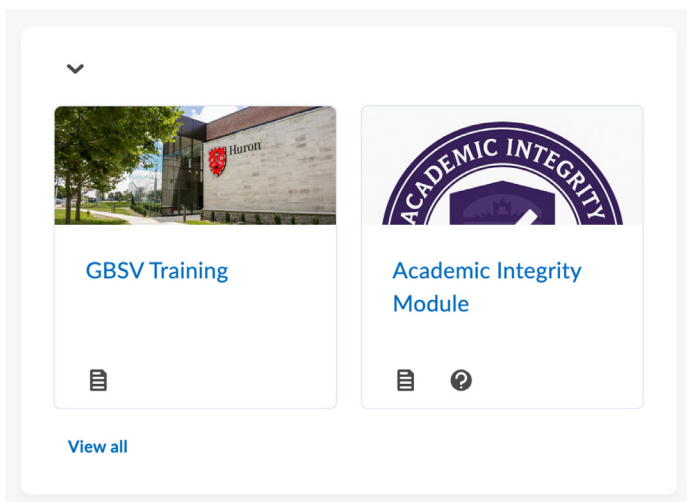

Please note: Students who do not complete Consent 101 by the deadline will have an academic seal placed on their records and will not be able to add/drop courses, obtain a transcript, or Intent to Register for the following year.
