Pre-or Corequisite(s): Governance, Leadership and Ethics 2003F/G

Course Description:

This course provides an in-depth exploration of principled leadership as an ethical foundation for governance from a historical perspective. Through a series of case studies profiling historical leaders in politics, government, business, non-governmental organizations, and social movements, we will consider questions of ethical leadership and governance, innovative forms of leadership, the tension between principles and power, and the role of leaders, followers and constituents within a variety of organizations.

Course Learning Outcomes:

This course aims to help students to analyze the criteria for successful leadership and evaluate the basis for ethical leadership in history. By the end of this course, students should be able to distinguish between different approaches to leadership in history and assess the role of historical context on leadership styles and outcomes. In addition, this course will foster students' ability to read and think critically, to organize and communicate ideas in both written and oral forms, and to conduct historical research.

Description of Course Methods:

This course is a seminar, which emphasizes informed participation and discussion. The weekly lectures (Monday 3:30-5:30) are generally intended to supplement the weekly readings and discussions by provided necessary background and historical context.

Weekly group discussions in seminar (Wednesday 2:30-3:30) form the basis of this course. Regular attendance is required and participation in the seminar is essential. Students are expected to have completed and considered the assigned readings prior to seminar and to attend class every week prepared to discuss the readings.

Textbooks and Other Required Resources:

All required readings are available on the course site on OWL or online through the links provided in the syllabus.

Methods of Evaluation:

Response Papers	10%
• Response Paper #1	5%	21 September 2022
• Response Paper #2	5%	5 October 2022
Participation	30%
• Contributions to seminar	20%	every week
• In-class discussion leader	10%	in consultation with instructor
Historiography Paper	40%
• Research Presentation	5%	in-class, 17 October-7 November 2022
• Paper Proposal	5%	one week after proposal presentation
• Annotated Bibliography	5%	21 November 2022
• Final Paper	25%	7 December 2022
Final Examination	20%	TBD

A late penalty of 5% per day (including weekends) will be assessed on all written work submitted after the due date.

Course Requirements:

Participation:

Students are expected to attend class every week prepared to discuss the readings. Attendance in class alone is insufficient to earn a passing participation grade. Effective participation demonstrates that students have completed and considered the weekly readings and are prepared to engage critically with the concepts and arguments. Effective participation also constitutes listening and responding to other students’ contributions and ideas and respecting the views of others even when disagreeing with their opinion.

Sample discussion questions will be posted to the course website on OWL before each class to assist students in reflecting on the readings and preparing for discussion. Students will be evaluated on a 10-point scale following each seminar. Non-attendance will result in a “0” for that class and attendance without participation will result in a “2” for that class. Participation grades will be assessed based on the quality of the students’ contribution to discussion.

In instances when absence from seminar is unavoidable the student is expected to inform the instructor in advance and to arrange with the instructor for additional written work to make up for the missed discussion.

In addition, students are required to lead the group discussion in one seminar per term. Students should choose their top three topics from weeks four to eleven (5 October–30 November 2022) and email the instructor with their topic preferences by 14 September 2022. The instructor will then assign discussion leaders for each week. The student facilitator(s) at each session will be expected to circulate five discussion questions, in consultation with the instructor, prior to the seminar. Further instructions about how to lead a class discussion and the expectations for discussion leaders will be posted on the course website on OWL.

Response Papers:

Students are responsible for submitting two brief commentary/critical engagement/reaction papers to the readings (600-800 words). The response papers should not be a summary of the readings but a response to the issues and questions they raise. Considering connections across readings and to other courses is strongly encouraged. No further research is required. Further instructions about writing response papers will be posted on the course website on OWL.

Historiography Paper:

Each student will write a historiographical essay (3500-4500 words) on a historical leader of their choice, due 7 December 2022. Unlike a research paper, a historiography paper is not the study of a historical subject but instead is an analysis of how historians have interpreted a historical subject. A historiography essay identifies the major thinkers and themes on a historical subject and connections between them, considers scholarly debates and assesses changes in scholars’ approach to historical leaders.

Each student will present to the class on the historical leader chosen for study, summarizing their significance and identifying major historiographical themes. The research presentation (5-7 minutes) must be completed during weeks six to eight (17 October-7 November 2022).

Each student must submit a formal and brief paper proposal (600-800 words) identifying the historical leader chosen for study and a list of at least five sources for initial research, including at least one book-length biography, due one week after the in-class research presentation.

Each student must submit an annotated bibliography summarizing research findings and scholarly approaches to their historical leader, due 21 November 2022. Students who do not complete these assignments will not be permitted to submit an essay and will receive a grade of “0” on the assignment.

Further instructions about writing paper proposals, annotated bibliographies and historiography papers will be posted on the course website on OWL.

Final Examination:

There will be a cumulative open book exam to be scheduled during the December examination period covering all readings and seminars for the entire course.

Appendix to Course Outlines: Academic Policies & Regulations Fall/Winter 2022

Pandemic Contingency

Huron will continue to follow the guidance of public health and government officials. It is anticipated that there will be no further disruptions to in-person instruction. This is subject to change.

Student Code of Conduct

Membership in the community of Huron University College and Western University implies acceptance by every student of the principle of respect for the rights, responsibilities, dignity and well-being of others and a readiness to support an environment conducive to the intellectual and personal growth of all who study, work and live within it. Upon registration, students assume the responsibilities that such registration entails. While in the physical or online classroom, students are expected to behave in a manner that supports the learning environment of others. Please review the Student Code of Conduct at: <https://huronatwestern.ca/sites/default/files/Res%20Life/Student%20Code%20of%20Conduct%20-%20Revised%20September%202019.pdf>.

Prerequisite and Antirequisite Information

Students are responsible for ensuring that they have successfully completed all course prerequisites and that they have not completed any course antirequisites. Unless you have either the requisites for this course or written special permission from your Dean to enroll in it, you may be removed from this course and it will be deleted from your record. This decision may not be appealed. You will receive no adjustment to your fees in the event that you are dropped from a course for failing to have the necessary prerequisites.

Attendance Regulations for Examinations

A student is entitled to be examined in courses in which registration is maintained, subject to the following limitations:

- 1) A student may be debarred from writing the final examination for failure to maintain satisfactory academic standing throughout the year.
- 2) Any student who, in the opinion of the instructor, is absent too frequently from class or laboratory periods in any course will be reported to the Dean of the Faculty offering the course (after due warning has been given). On the recommendation of the Department concerned, and with the permission of the Dean of that Faculty, the student will be debarred from taking the regular examination in the course. The Dean of the Faculty offering the course will communicate that decision to the Dean of the Faculty of registration.

Review the policy on Attendance Regulations for Examinations here: Academic Calendar - Western University \(uwo.ca\)

Statement on Academic Offences

Scholastic offences are taken seriously and students are directed to read the appropriate policy, specifically, the definition of what constitutes a Scholastic Offence, at the following website: Academic Calendar - Western University \(uwo.ca\). The appeals process is also outlined in this policy as well as more generally at the following website: https://www.uwo.ca/univsec/pdf/academic\_policies/appeals/appealsundergrad.pdf.

Turnitin.com

All required papers may be subject to submission for textual similarity review to the commercial plagiarism detection software under license to the University for the detection of plagiarism. All papers submitted for such checking will be included as source documents in the reference database for the purpose of detecting plagiarism of papers subsequently submitted to the system. Use of the service is subject to the licensing agreement, currently between The University of Western Ontario and Turnitin.com (<http://www.turnitin.com>).

Statement on Use of Electronic Devices

It is not appropriate to use electronic devices (such as, but not limited to, laptops, tablets, cell phones) in the classroom for non-classroom activities. Such activity is disruptive and distracting to other students and to the instructor, and can inhibit learning. Students are expected to respect the classroom environment and to refrain from inappropriate use of technology and other electronic devices in class.

Statement on Use of Personal Response Systems (“Clickers”)

Personal Response Systems (“clickers”) may be used in some classes. If clickers are to be used in a class, it is the responsibility of the student to ensure that the device is activated and functional. Students must see their instructor if they have any concerns about whether the clicker is malfunctioning. Students must use only their own clicker. If clicker records are used to compute a portion of the course grade:

- the use of somebody else’s clicker in class constitutes a scholastic offence
- the possession of a clicker belonging to another student will be interpreted as an attempt to commit a scholastic offence.

Academic Consideration for Missed Work

All students pursuing academic consideration, regardless of type, must contact their instructors no less than 24 hours following the end of the period of absence to clarify how they will be expected to fulfill the academic responsibilities missed during their absence. Students are reminded that they should consider carefully the implications of postponing tests or midterm exams or delaying submission of work, and are encouraged to make appropriate decisions based on their specific circumstances.

Students who have conditions for which academic accommodation is appropriate, such as disabilities or ongoing or chronic health conditions, should work with Accessible Education Services to determine appropriate forms of accommodation. Further details concerning policies and procedures may be found at: <http://academicsupport.uwo.ca/>.

Policy on Academic Consideration for a Medical/ Non-Medical Absence

(a) Consideration on Medical Grounds for assignments worth less than 10% of final grade: Consult Instructor Directly and Contact Academic Advising

When seeking consideration on medical grounds for assignments worth less than 10% of the final course grade, the student should contact the instructor directly. The student need only share broad outlines of the medical situation. The instructor may require the student to submit documentation to the academic advisors, in which case she or he will advise the student and inform the academic advisors to expect documentation. If documentation is requested, the student will need to complete and submit the Student Medical Certificate. The instructor may not collect medical documentation. The advisors will contact the instructor when the medical documentation is received, and will outline the severity and duration of the medical challenge as expressed on the Student Medical Certificate and in any other supporting documentation. The student will be informed that the instructor has been notified of the presence of medical documentation, and will be instructed to work as quickly as possible with the instructor on an agreement for accommodation.

b) Medical Grounds for assignments worth 10% or more of final grade: Go Directly to Academic Advising

requires that all student requests for accommodation on medical grounds for assignments worth 10% or more of the final grade be made directly to the academic advising office of the home faculty (for Huron students, the “home faculty” is Huron), with supporting documentation in the form (minimally) of the Senate-approved Student Medical Certificate found at:

The documentation is submitted in confidence and will not be shown to instructors. The advisors will contact the instructor when the medical documentation is received, and will outline the severity and duration of the medical challenge as expressed on the Student Medical Certificate and in any other supporting documentation. The student will be informed that the instructor has been notified of the presence of medical documentation, and will be instructed to work as quickly as possible with the instructor on an agreement for accommodation. The instructor will not normally deny accommodation where appropriate medical documentation is in place and where the duration it describes aligns with the due date(s) of assignment(s). Before denying a request for accommodation on medical grounds, the instructor will consult with the Dean. The instructor’s decision is appealable to the Dean.

c) Consideration on Non-Medical Grounds: Consult Huron Support Services/Academic Advising, or email huronsss@uwo.ca.

Students seeking academic consideration for a non-medical absence (e.g. varsity sports, religious, compassionate, or bereavement) will be required to provide appropriate documentation. All consideration requests must include a completed Consideration Request Form. Late penalties may apply at the discretion of the instructor.

Please review the full policy on Academic Consideration for medical and non-medical absence at: accommodation\_medical.pdf \(uwo.ca\). Consult Huron Academic Advising at huronsss@uwo.ca for any further questions or information.

Support Services

For advice on course selections, degree requirements, and for assistance with requests for medical accommodation, students should email an Academic Advisor in Huron’s Student Support Services at huronsss@uwo.ca. An outline of the range of services offered is found on the Huron website at: <https://huronatwestern.ca/student-life/student-services/>.

Department Chairs, Program Directors and Coordinators are also able to answer questions about individual programs. Contact information can be found on the Huron website at: <https://huronatwestern.ca/contact/faculty-staff-directory/>.

If you think that you are too far behind to catch up or that your workload is not manageable, you should consult your Academic Advisor. If you are considering reducing your workload by dropping one or more courses, this must be done by the appropriate deadlines. Please refer to the Advising website, <https://huronatwestern.ca/student-life/student-services/academic-advising/> or review the list of official Sessional Dates on the Academic Calendar, available here: <http://www.westerncalendar.uwo.ca/SessionalDates.cfm>.

You should consult with the course instructor and the Academic Advisor who can help you consider alternatives to dropping one or more courses. Note that dropping a course may affect OSAP and/or Scholarship/Bursary eligibility.

Wellness and Health Supports at Huron and Western

University students may encounter setbacks from time to time that can impact academic performance. Huron offers a variety of services that are here to support your success and wellbeing. All Huron staff and faculty have received training on responding to disclosures of Gender-Based Sexual Violence (GBSV); students should know that the Community Safety Office is a resource for survivors, providing support and, if desired, guidance while referring them to the further supports that they may require. Please visit <https://huronatwestern.ca/student-life-campus/student-services/wellness-safety> for more information or contact staff directly:
