

FINANCE & ADMINISTRATION (MOS)

Financial Learning for the Future

Master Finance, Drive Business Impact

Finance shapes how we understand value, risk, and return, both as individuals and within organizations. This program builds a strong quantitative foundation in finance, statistics, and economics, preparing students for professional designations such as CFA, CFP, or CSC.

Through theory and real-world case studies, students develop critical decision-making skills essential for success in today's financial landscape. Step into a role where your decisions drive real business impact.

Where Curiosity Leads, Passion Follows

Your first year builds a strong foundation for your degree.

With core courses in Economics, Math, Business, and Computer Science, you'll develop essential skills in analysis, communication, and problem-solving. You'll also have room to explore a wide range of subjects across different disciplines.

Customize your Degree

Combine modules like specializations, majors, and minors to build a path that matches your passions and goals.

Beyond the Classroom

- Hands-on, community-based learning: Gain real-world experience through industry tours, consulting projects with small businesses, governance support for community agencies, and open discussions with business leaders.
- Bringing theory to life: Apply course concepts in meaningful, real-time settings that connect classroom learning to the broader community.

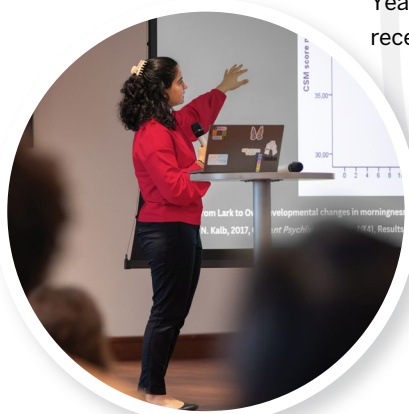

CAREER INTERNSHIPS

Get paid part-time experience during the school year or full-time in summer. These roles align with your interests and help build your resume with real-world value.

ACADEMIC INTERNSHIPS

Earn while you learn. Take 4–16 months off between Year 3 and Year 4 for a full-time, for-credit, paid internship. Many students receive job offers after completion.

RESEARCH INTERNSHIPS

Work with a Huron faculty member for support on a student research fellowship with funding up to $1,500 or a paid research assistant opportunity.

ENTREPRENEURIAL INTERNSHIPS

Get support to ideate, plan, and launch a new business. You'll get 1:1 coaching, access to funding, and other resources to set you up for success.

Travel Study

Embark on an international adventure and gain hands-on experience, build community, and explore different cultures. Huron University provides experiential learning opportunities abroad, as well as support to students for international exchanges.
