

Huron Brief Course Outlines

Fall/Winter 2023-2024

Course Title: Beginner Modern Hebrew

Course Number and Section

HEBREW

1030 - 550

Instructor Name(s): Nicki Ishai

Instructor Email(s): nishai@uwo.ca

Disclaimer: Information in the brief course outline is subject to change. The syllabus posted on OWL is the official and authoritative source of information for the course.

Course Description:

To provide students with an introduction to the language, both spoken and written.

Fundamentals of grammatical structures with emphasis on vocabulary building and comprehension of modern Hebrew text through readings and discussions.

Students will learn to understand and produce text in modern Hebrew.

Throughout the course, all four language skills will be emphasized - Comprehension, Reading, Conversation and Writing- so that students will feel comfortable to use their skills.

Learning Outcomes:

Oral communication - expand and effectively use vocabulary in discussions

Reading Comprehension - understand various Hebrew text

Written expression - write coherently and produce narrative and descriptive writing

Textbooks and Course Materials:

Hebrew From Scratch 1 - by:
Chayat S., Israeli S., Kobliner H.

Handouts of short stories,
grammar worksheets,
extra reading material

Methods of Evaluation:

Assignment	Due Date mm/dd/yy	Weight - %
Attendance and participation	Ongoing	10%
Quizzes	Ongoing	20%
Oral presentations	Ongoing	10%
Written assignments	Ongoing	15%
First term in class test	11/30/2023	15%

Assignment	Due Date mm/dd/yy	Weight - %
Game	03/28/2024	10%
Final Exam	April TBD	20%

In solidarity with the Anishinaabe, Haudenosaunee, Lu̇naapéewak, and Chonnonton peoples on whose traditional treaty and unceded territories this course is shared.