Course Description:

An examination of the theories and applications of managing human relations and the dynamics of interaction within organizations.

Learning Outcomes: one outcome per entry

Organizational Human Relations is the study of achieving organizational effectiveness by working with other individuals. This course introduces the student to the many skills and abilities required to manage relationships with typical organizational stakeholders

The study of Human Relations derives its theoretical foundations from Psychology, Human Rights, Human Resources, Sociology and Organizational Behaviour. Human Relations focuses on two primary areas including individual growth and development, and the pursuit of organizational goals and objectives.
