

Huron Brief Course Outlines

Fall/Winter 2023-2024

Course Title: Leadership in Animal Welfare

Course Number and Section

MOS

2185A - 550

Instructor Name(s): Dr. Kendra Coulter

Instructor Email(s): kendra.coulter@huron.uwo.ca

Disclaimer: Information in the brief course outline is subject to change. The syllabus posted on OWL is the official and authoritative source of information for the course.

Course Description:

An examination of animal welfare and sustainability challenges, strategies, and solutions in sectors such as fashion, beauty, sports, entertainment, food, and animal care.

Learning Outcomes:

- a) explain the animal welfare and sustainability challenges in major sectors
- b) explain and assess animal welfare and sustainability strategies and opportunities in major sectors, including reform and replacement approaches
- c) understand, empathize with, and consider animals' diverse roles and experiences in organizations and multispecies communities
- d) demonstrate analytical, collaborative, verbal communication, and leadership skills in the promotion of sustainability and multispecies wellbeing

Textbooks and Course Materials:

All readings will be posted or linked in OWL.

Methods of Evaluation:

Assignment	Due Date mm/dd/yy	Weight - %
Experiential learning collaborative and individual analysis	10,11/23,8/2023	20
Exam	11/13/2023	40
Battle of the brands	11,12/27,4/2023	20
Class contribution	Ongoing. 2 x 10% returned 10/23/2023 and 12/8/2023	20

In solidarity with the Anishinaabe, Haudenosaunee, Lūnaapéewak, and Chonnonton peoples on whose traditional treaty and unceded territories this course is shared.