

Brief Course Outline

Course Title: Organizational Behaviour

Course Number and Section:

MOS

2181B 552

Instructor Name(s): Dr. Kendra Coulter

Instructor Email(s): kendra.coulter@huron.uwo.ca

Disclaimer: Information in the brief course outline is subject to change. The syllabus posted on OWL is the official and authoritative source of information for the course.

Course Description:

A multidisciplinary approach to the study of human behaviour in organizations from the individual, group, organizational, and socioenvironmental levels of explanation.

Learning Outcomes:

- a) understand, explain, and apply established and emerging concepts and theories from the field of organizational behaviour
- b) understand key fundamentals of ethical leadership and management
- c) approach people and organizations in context, responsively and proactively
- d) identify and understand significant sources of success, wellbeing, and weakness in organizations, and assess and recommend strategies for preventing and responding to challenges

Textbooks and Course Materials:

Readings from the open-access textbook Organizational Behavior and other sources are linked or provided through OWL.

Blackberry (2023).

Severance (2022/season 1).

Methods Of Evaluation:

Assignment	Due Date mm/dd/yy	Weight - %
Contribution	Continuous	15
Knowledge Application 1	02/28/2025	25
Knowledge Application 2	03/14/2025	30
Final Assignment	04/04/2025	30

In solidarity with the Anishinaabe, Haudenosaunee, Lūnaapéewak, and Chonnonton peoples on whose traditional treaty and unceded territories this course is shared.

Friday, November 29, 2024