

Brief Course Outline

Course Title: Organizational Studies in Women's Leadership

Course Number and Section:

MOS

4481G 550

Instructor Name(s): Dr. Kendra Coulter

Instructor Email(s): kendra.coulter@huron.uwo.ca

Disclaimer: Information in the brief course outline is subject to change. The syllabus posted on OWL is the official and authoritative source of information for the course.

Course Description:

An advanced examination of the theory and practice of leadership with a focus on women. Students will develop their analytical abilities and own leadership skills, and deepen their understanding of equity, diversity, and inclusion in organizations.

Learning Outcomes:

a) identify and understand the barriers to and accomplishments of diverse women's leadership
b) assess gendered organizational challenges and both responsive and proactive strategies for confronting them
c) demonstrate high quality verbal and written communication skills
d) apply collaborative and independent analytical skills to experiences of leadership

Textbooks and Course Materials:

Jaded: A Novel. By Ela Lee (Simon & Schuster, 2024).

Other readings are linked or provided through OWL. Visual materials are available on Netflix, Apple TV+, and other streaming services.

Methods Of Evaluation:

Assignment	Due Date mm/dd/yy	Weight - %
Analytical Reflection 1	01/20/2025	10
Analytical Reflection 2	02/10/2025	10
Midterm Knowledge Application	03/06/2025	30
Final Assignment	End of term	30
Contributions	Continuous	20

In solidarity with the Anishinaabe, Haudenosaunee, Lūnaapéewak, and Chonnonton peoples on whose traditional treaty and unceded territories this course is shared.

Friday, November 29, 2024