

HIST 3808G: Jewish Life in North America Since 1880 (Winter 2023)

---

Professor Monda Halpern

---

This course examines the history of Jews in the United States and Canada, exploring themes of identity, assimilation, activism, and upward mobility, and considering how Jews have helped shape North American life through their struggles and achievements.

Course Delivery: In-person, Thursdays, 1:30-3:30pm

Prerequisite: 1.0 course in History at the 2200 level or above

For More Information: rnorthc2@uwo.ca