

Brief Course Outline

Course Title: Principles of Macroeconomics

Course Number and Section:

ECONOMIC

1022B 553

Instructor Name(s): Sunghoon Cho

Instructor Email(s): scho83@uwo.ca

Disclaimer: Information in the brief course outline is subject to change. The syllabus posted on OWL is the official and authoritative source of information for the course.

Course Description:

National income; aggregate supply and aggregate demand; inflation, unemployment and interest rates; money and monetary institutions; economic growth; balance of payments; and exchange rates.

Learning Outcomes:

students will be able to understand, explain, and analyze: measures of macroeconomic activity

students will be able to understand, explain, and analyze: macroeconomic trends in the Canadian and the world economy

students will be able to understand, explain, and analyze: macroeconomic models that determine equilibrium in the market

students will be able to understand, explain, and analyze: how an economy moves through business cycles

students will be able to understand, explain, and analyze: how an economy grows in the long run

students will be able to understand, explain, and analyze: how government uses fiscal and monetary policies to achieve its short-term and long-term macroeconomic goals

Textbooks and Course Materials:

Macroeconomics: Canada in the Global Environment, 12th Edition, by Michael Parkin and Robin Bade, Pearson Canada Inc., 2024

Methods Of Evaluation:

Assignment	Due Date mm/dd/yy	Weight - %
In-class quizzes	every class	10
Online quizzes	every week	10

Assignment	Due Date mm/dd/yy	Weight - %
Midterm 1	02/06/2025	20
Midterm 2	03/13/2025	20
Final Exam	TBD	40

In solidarity with the Anishinaabe, Haudenosaunee, Lūnaapéewak, and Chonnonton peoples on whose traditional treaty and unceded territories this course is shared.

Friday, December 6, 2024